Please note that the GSA Pantry will be closed the week of 10/31-11/4 for construction!

Follow the pantry on Instagram @ucdgsapantry so you can be the first to know about schedules, new item alerts, and announcements!

We're seeking fall quarter volunteers to join our small but mighty team. Opportunities include volunteer staffers to hold shifts, a marketing extraordinaire to create collateral, and a social media guru to plan content and cultivate our rapidly growing community. Grad students, apply here: https://bit.ly/gsapantryvolunteer

5. Writing a Teaching Statement for the Academic Job Market Monday Oct. 24 2:10-3:00pm Zoom

Why do you teach? How do you teach? How do you measure your effectiveness? Most academic job applications require applicants to address these questions in a Statement of Teaching Philosophy (SoTP). Developing a SoTP can help you clarify your goals as an educator and reflect on how you teach. In this hands-on workshop, participants will learn strategies to write a compelling SoTP. Participants should bring a draft of their own SoTP to the workshop to review and revise. Participants are also encouraged to access and complete the self-paced online module, “Developing a Statement of Teaching Philosophy for Academic Job Applications” prior to attending the session.

Monday October 24, 2:10-3:00pm. Online via Zoom Register here.

6. The Academic Alt Protein Researchers Showcase Tuesday Oct. 25 3-5 RMI South Room 1207

Come join the Academic Alt Protein Research Showcase, highlighting work to transform global food system to support planet, people, and animals. This hybrid research panel is a collaboration between UC Davis and Cornell academic researchers working in the alternative protein sphere. In-person mixer to follow hybrid research presentations.

Tuesday October 25, 3-5pm. RMI South Room 1207 Zoom Registration Link
7. UC Davis Humanities Institute Fall Reception Oct. 26 Voorhies Hall Courtyard

The UC Davis Humanities Institute invites you to its Fall Reception on Wednesday Oct. 26, 4-6pm in the Voorhies Hall Courtyard.

8. GSA Pizza Happy Hour Oct. 26 Woodstock’s

GSA invites you to Pizza Happy Hour at Woodstock’s downtown on Wednesday, Oct. 26th, 5-7 PM. When you arrive at Woodstock’s, look for the flyer for the event. Lauren Hitt and Timothy Walker, the GSA event coordinators, will be nearby to give you a hand stamp which you can present to redeem 2 slices of pizza! Grab your own beer or beverage too and join your fellow grads in the indoor or outdoor seating areas.

Please bring your valid Student ID, and we hope to see you there!

Vegan and gluten free options will be available.

9. Coffee, Bagel, Donut Day Fridays 8:30-10:30 Walker Hall

Please join GSA on Friday mornings this quarter from 8:30-10:30 in Walker Hall for Coffee, Bagel, Donut Day! We hope to see you there!

Vegan and gluten free options will be available.

10. Getting to Know What Your Students Know: Simple Strategies to Assess Student Learning Oct 31 2:10-3:00pm Teaching and Learning Complex Room 1213

Have you ever wondered if your students were really “getting it” or been shocked with low exam grades when you thought all was well? This interactive workshop offers practical techniques to assess your students’ learning throughout each class and throughout the quarter. Research shows that low-stakes formative assessments such as low-stakes quizzes and reflection activities enhance student performance on final exams and papers. Participants will learn strategies to effectively gauge student learning and provide effective and constructive feedback.

Monday October 31, 2022, 2:10-3:00 pm. Location: Teaching & Learning Complex, room 1213. Register

11. University of California President’s Postdoctoral Fellowship Program Deadline November 1st

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

THE PROGRAM. The University of California President’s Postdoctoral Fellowship Program was established in 1984 to encourage outstanding women and minority Ph.D. recipients to pursue academic careers at the University of California. The current program offers postdoctoral research fellowships and faculty mentoring to outstanding scholars in all fields whose research, teaching, and service will contribute to the diversity and equal opportunity at the University of California. The contributions to diversity may include public service towards increasing equitable access in fields where women and minorities are underrepresented. In some fields, the contributions may include research focusing on underserved populations or understanding inequalities related to race, gender, disability or LGBT. The program is seeking applicants with the potential to bring to their academic and research careers the critical perspective that comes from their non-traditional educational background or understanding of the experiences of members of groups historically underrepresented in higher education in the United States.

AWARDS AND APPOINTMENTS. Fellowships are awarded for research conducted at any one of the University of California’s ten campuses. The award includes a salary starting at approximately $55,632 depending on field and experience, benefits including health insurance and paid vacation/sick leave, and up to $5,000 for research-related and program travel expenses. Each award is for a minimum of 12-months and may be renewable for an additional term upon demonstration of academic/research productivity.

ELIGIBILITY. Applicants must receive a Ph.D. or terminal degree from an accredited university before the start of their fellowship. Successful applicants must present documents demonstrating that they are legally authorized to work in the United States. Individuals granted deferred action status under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program are encouraged to apply.

APPLICATION. Apply online at: ppfp.ucop.edu

DEADLINE: November 1, 2022

More information: visit online: ppfp.ucop.edu/info/ email: ppfpinfo@berkeley.edu

Innovator Fellowship | Cohort 13 | The March Group + TechAccel

Two Innovator Fellows will be selected to join the next cohort and work with these innovative venture capital groups. We invite you to apply to one or both opportunities.

The March Group

“March” is a VC fund platform committed to supporting and investing in entrepreneurs and companies developing and bringing exponential technologies to food, health and sustainability. March’s investment strategy involves becoming recognized as the leading investor in critical and transformative technology solutions, and aims to achieve this by investing into companies and funds that focus on developing core intellectual property around game-changing sustainable solutions that are aligned with globally relevant sustainability trends and benefits. With over a decade of experience as a team, our General Partners have a proven track record of investments and operations.
Candidates with coursework or experience related to one or more of the following areas (or similar) are strongly desired: synthetic biology, data science, artificial intelligence, clean energy, microbiome & gut health, carbon capture, any sustainability-related area of study.

TechAccel

TechAccel was founded in 2014 as a first-of-its-kind technology and venture development organization in the agriculture, animal health & nutrition, and food technology sectors. TechAccel sources, invests in and acquires early-stage innovations. Through collaborations with dozens of universities and research institutions, TechAccel conducts science advancement and de-risking research and development to ready technologies for commercialization. TechAccel also makes equity investments in start-up companies where an adjacent business opportunity exists. TechAccel is based in Kansas City and has offices in St. Louis at Bio Research & Development Growth (BRDG).

Candidates with coursework or experience related to one or more of the following areas (or similar) are strongly desired: veterinary medicine, animal health or nutrition, with specific knowledge of companion animals and/or production animals (poultry, livestock, aquaculture). Areas of expertise may include, but are not limited to, infectious disease, vaccines, diagnostics, pain, inflammation, cancer, nutrition, and artificial intelligence/robotics and precision animal management.

Applications due Friday, November 11, 2022 Learn more and Apply!

16. Join the Graduate Student Action Network

The Graduate Student Action Network is a growing network of graduate students at over 50 schools in 30 states, started in June 2022 in response to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson. Members include grad student government and union representatives, officers of campus advocacy groups and clubs, and other students passionate about defending their peers’ rights. GSAN’s goal is to empower students to make and demand change for reproductive justice, LGTBQIA+ rights, wages and healthcare, anti-racism, climate justice and sustainability, anti-Imperialism and Indigenous struggles, and more, through student organization and mobilization. GSAN collaborates with partners including the Young Democratic Socialists of America (YDSA) and chapter leaders of nationwide med student and law student advocacy groups. Any U.S.-based student is welcome to join GSAN using the link here: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAlpQLSdApNJOT2tM-tgHklXr7HXL5FKhacPcfCzb5-6hYgKUS9DA4A/viewform

Those who would like to be more active can now join a working group! If you have 2 hours per week that you would like to spend on activism, please sign up to join a working group:

Please be sure to dress warm for this event and bring your own blankets and/or lawn chairs for seating. No registration required and children are welcomed at this event."

18. Sign Opportunity for All’s Letter to UC President Drake

The University of California has the chance to take a critical step to make clear that all UC students can access the educational opportunities the university has to offer, including employment opportunities within educational programs and elsewhere at the university. Working with immigration law experts at the UCLA School of Law’s Center for Immigration Law & Policy (CILP), undocumented student organizers have identified that states and certain state entities are not bound by IRCA’s hiring restrictions and can legally employ undocumented workers. As their analysis shows, because the University of California is an arm of the state, it faces no legal restriction on hiring undocumented workers. This reading of the 1986 law has now been endorsed by [twelve] of the most knowledgeable immigration law professors in the country.

19. Student Advocate to the Regents (StAR) Applications for November now open!

Student Advocates to the Regents (StARs) are funded to travel to the Regents meetings to provide public comment on pressing student issues. StARs are allowed 'backstage' privileges to speak with the Regents informally and engage in student advocacy. The next Board of Regents meeting is Nov. 15-17 online and at UC San Francisco. If interested, please complete and submit the following application. This is an opportunity for Graduate and Professional UC students. If you are not selected for this board meeting, we may consider your application for future opportunities (please let us know in the application if you would be interested in attending other upcoming board meetings). You can find the application here.
20. Join the Writing Partner Program!

All graduate students and postdoctoral scholars at UC Davis are invited to join the Writing Partner Program. The program connects you with fellow graduate and postdoctoral student writers to provide support, feedback, and accountability. Being part of a writing group provides space for structured peer review so that group members can learn about different styles of writing, genre conventions, and more. The accountability required to work in a group facilitates writing progress and development rather than procrastination!

For more information about the program, you can visit: https://writing.ucdavis.edu/wac/resources/writing-partner-program.

To sign up for the program, please fill out a brief survey via the following link: https://ucdavis.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cNpA38n0btnFTGR.

When you fill out a sign up form, you will have access to the program's Canvas page with writing resources. You will be contacted as soon as a successful writing partner or group match has been made. Matches will be made on a rolling basis.

21. Writing Consultations for Graduate Students & Postdocs

Stuck on a chapter of your dissertation? Working on a fellowship application but can't seem to find the right narrative? Feeling discouraged because of writer's block? Schedule a writing consultation with one of our Graduate Writing Fellows! Fellows offer one-on-one 40-minute writing consultations with enrolled grad students and postdocs. Consultations offer you the opportunity to engage in a conversation about your writing at any stage of the writing process in a low-stakes, low-stress environment with a peer. While we are not a proofreading or editing service, we are happy to identify patterns of error in writing and help you learn about resources to improve grammar. Sign up for a consultation here!

22. Grad Student Loan Debt Survey

NAGPS are still collecting anonymous survey data to find out more about how our members are specifically impacted by the recent forgiveness programs and loan management restructuring. The survey can be accessed here and everyone is encouraged to fill it out and share it with any graduate students or recent graduates!

23. Graduate Research Survey: Student or Adult? Identity Distress in Emerging Adulthood Across Academic and Community Settings

Julia Passini, a Doctoral Candidate in Lifespan Development Psychology from North Carolina State University, is recruiting participants for her dissertation: “Student or Adult? Identity Distress in Emerging Adulthood Across Academic and Community Settings.” It is an examination of identity development and the dimensions of emerging adulthood in both graduate students and those of a similar age range who did not pursue graduate school. It is an online survey and will not take more than 20 minutes of time. If you participate, you will be asked to enter your email address to be entered in a drawing for one of four $50 Amazon gift cards

Here is the link to the study: https://ncsu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6tZw6EaWhuHzGXs

Please let the Julia know if you have any questions by emailing jksorens@ncsu.edu
